THREE SUMMER SESSIONS OFFER VARIED PROGRAMS

IMMEDIATE RELEASE - May 1, 1974

The University of San Diego in Alcalá Park is offering a varied Summer Sessions program. The summer program will be divided into three major sessions with workshops interspersed (Pre-Session June 3-21, Regular Session June 24 to August 2, and Post-Session August 5-23). The course offerings will be taught both days and evenings. Anyone interested in taking a course during this period may do so for credit toward a degree, for career growth, for salary or rank increments, or for enrichment.

Among the courses to be taught are: "Historic Site Archaeology at Old Town State Park," on-site archaeology with appropriate lectures in the location and excavation of specific buildings which existed during the period 1821-1872. "Shakespeare," includes readings of three plays being presented in the Old Globe Theatre by the 1974 National San Diego Shakespeare Festival and arrangements have been made for class members to attend the Wednesday matinee.

"Management Theory and Practice," is an intensive examination of management theories, management principles and management functions and this is a graduate Master of Business Administration course. "Design in Enamels" is a production of Vitreous enamels, approached from the creative viewpoint and using the technique, materials, and tools appropriate for this medium of expression.

"The American Indian," will have special readings and topics emphasizing the Indians of the Trans-Mississippi West with elements of culture emphasized.

In addition to the campus in San Diego the University has arranged travel-study programs for those who wish to visit either foreign or domestic areas or for those who wish to travel and obtain University credit for academic programs.

In celebration of the 25th Anniversary of its founding, the University of San Diego is arranging for a trip to Spain during the period June 3-21. Among the places to be visited enroute are Madrid, Cuenca, Barcelona, Pamplona, Burgos, and Santiago de Compostela. Two courses will be offered for credit: El Camino de Santiago and Key Monuments of Spanish Art.

Another foreign program planned is Summer in Guadalajara at the Institute of Technology (ITESO) where the University conducts a six-week summer session in Mexico. Course offerings include Spanish language at all levels, Mexican and Spanish literature, art, sociology, psychology, history, and political science.

During the period June 22 to July 20, Baja (Lower) California is the site for courses to be taught by the University. Such locales as Cabo de San Lucas, El Triunfo and Loreto will be visited and studied. The program will be headquartered in La Paz. The flora and fauna and geology will be given particular attention since the varieties are many; some of the Jesuit missions will be visited and side trips will be made to some of the islands in the Sea of Cortez.

A special travel study program in Southern California, June 24 to July 5, is being offered for persons wishing to learn more about early California and San Diego history. Places to be visited (where lectures, films, and slides would be shown) are Cabrillo National Monument, The Royal Spanish Presidio of San Diego, Mission San Diego de Alcalá, San Luis Rey Mission, and San Juan
